

Several functions are contained in the module 'Account Management'. These include:

- Management of the loans subledger
- Generation of payment orders (e.g. outgoing payments, direct debits) to/from an internal customer current account or external accounts
- Receipt and processing of incoming payments

