

Write-downs and write-ups are processes only relevant for accounting purposes. They do not have any impact in the contractually defined payment plan or on outstanding payments. Write-offs and write-ups refer to the book value of the loan.