

The open amortisation premium/discount describes the amount of premium/discount which will be distributed in the future based on the EIR.

The calculation of the open amortisation requires several steps analogue to the open amortisation of transaction costs.